

2020 School Nurse Education Module

Available June 19, 2020 and open for participation through December 18, 2020.

Cost: $27.50

Join other school nurses participating in an online nursing continuing professional development activity! In this unprecedented time, East Tennessee Children's Hospital (ETCH) has moved its annual school nurse conference to an online format. This format allows ETCH to continue its mission to improve the health of children by ensuring school nurses have access to up to date information on common childhood illnesses, injuries and changes in care for children with chronic disease.
